

Protection against the expansion of the Corona virus

Important!

The overall risk to the health of the population in Germany is currently rated as high.
Please help prevent spread of the virus!

If ANY of the following statements applies to you:

- You are suffering from flu-like symptoms (e. g. high temperature, coughing, breathing difficulties).
- You are suffering from diarrhoea and / or from a headache.
- You were in personal contact with a person who is known to suffer from or supposed to suffer from the Corona virus.
